Chapter 1 by The Book of Stories

I lay there, shackled, by the beast's amazing defence technology.

"You won't get away with this!" I growl at its ugly demonic form.

"Well darling.." It said, tracing my short, whitish-grey hair. "I already have."

If tore off my eyepatch, revealing my blood red eye.

"Oh... I was right. You are weaker in human form. You can't even hold in all of your power. Pity." The beast teased me.

I finally was able to get a good look at this creature. It was basically in human SHAPE, like body width, but it was much stronger, spiritually. It's kind of hard to describe since I'm shaking.

I'm not afraid of dying, I'm afraid of what my team thinks of me now, since they just found out I was a monster.

I failed them. I really failed them.

He undid my ribbon that held my shirt together.

"N-no!" I screamed, still stuck in position.

I could easily beat him, but my moral is so beaten up, I'm hopeless.
